My Dear Friend

I regret extremely
that I missed you at Richmond. I have been constantly perplexed for the last few weeks in consequence of not knowing Mr. Thompson's ~~address~~ as if I had known that I should through him
have tried to make
some appointment

to meet both you & him in London. As it is, I hope I shall see him, tho'
perhaps only for a few minutes in Liverpool.
I had hoped he would have come down to Richmond or written to me, but I should not have waited
for this had I known
where to write to him.
Please give him my love & say this to him
if he be with you.

I hope, my dear friend,
you & I may both be
well enough to begin
the voyage with talk.
You must have a great
deal to tell me.

I shall not need to give you any trouble in Liverpool. My sister Emma & Edward & Anne Diez
will accompany me
down, but we shall
most probably go in the evening train on Friday
which will not arrive till late, so that I shall not have the pleasure of seeing you till we meet on the ^{road} ~~road~~ ^{fare}.

I go, to day, to Windsor to spend a few days
with my cousin, & shall then go to London to spend my last days
in Anne's new home.

of which she takes possession to day. She begs me to ask your acceptance of her photograph which I now enclose. She meant to have sent it in her own letter.

Will you give my
very kind regards to all the Dupont family
especially to Miss Harriet Dupont whom I know by letter. Emma sends her love & regrets to have seen so little of you, but she will be returning by I hope. Auguste is still in Paris, but will return before I leave. Believe me
